

2026 CALENDAR ANNOUNCED

Team Police 2026: A Year of Connection, Competition & Celebration

Join us for an exceptional calendar of events championing police wellbeing through sport across the UK

As we look ahead to 2026, Team Police is proud to announce an ambitious calendar of events that will bring together officers, staff, and stakeholders from across UK policing. From prestigious award ceremonies to competitive finals and inspiring networking evenings, our 2026 programme reinforces our commitment to making sport the number one wellbeing initiative for police forces nationwide.

2026 Event Calendar

Q1: Starting Strong - January to March

We kick off the year with two landmark events that celebrate achievement and set the tone for twelve months of sport-driven wellbeing.

Celebration of Police Wellbeing Through Sport

Wednesday, 21st January 2026

 VirginMediaO2, 3 Sheldon Square, Paddington, London W2 6HY

Begin the year in the company of Chief Constables, senior officers, and key stakeholders as we celebrate the vital role sport plays in police wellbeing. This evening reception provides an invaluable opportunity to network with policing leaders while reflecting on our collective commitment to supporting officer and staff health through sporting participation.

What to Expect:

- Evening reception in prestigious London venue
- Engagement with Chief Constables and senior leadership
- Celebration of sport's impact on police wellbeing
- Strategic conversations with key stakeholders

PSUK Annual Sports Awards Dinner

PREMIUM EVENT

Wednesday, 18th March 2026

 The Milner York, Station Road, York YO24 1AA

The highlight of our sporting calendar returns to the historic city of York. This premium black-tie event, held in conjunction with the National Police Chiefs Council, honours the outstanding achievements of police athletes and celebrates the wellbeing impact of sport across UK forces.

Event Highlights:

- Formal reception and three-course dinner
- Presentation of Sports and Wellbeing Awards
- Tables hosted by Chief Constables and senior officers
- Partnership with National Police Chiefs Council
- Recognition of excellence in police sport

Q2: Competition Season - April to June

Spring brings our most action-packed quarter, featuring national finals, international fixtures, and our signature golf day.

British Police Women's Football

Thursday, 9th April 2026

Champneys Springs, Gallows Lane, Ashby de la Zouch, Leicestershire DE12 7HD

Celebrating International Women's Day, this special fixture showcases the talent and dedication of women in police football. The day combines competitive sport with an exclusive dinner in the company of policing seniors, highlighting the growing strength of women's sport within UK policing.

Why These Events Matter

Every event in our 2026 calendar serves a dual purpose: celebrating sporting excellence while advancing our mission to make sport the number one wellbeing initiative across UK policing.

Our events provide:

- Competitive Opportunities: National finals and fixtures that allow officers and staff to compete at the highest level
- Engagement Platforms: Unique access to Chief Constables, senior officers, and key stakeholders in relaxed, collegial settings
- Recognition and Celebration: Formal acknowledgment of achievement in sport and its contribution to wellbeing
- Strategic Dialogue: Thought-leadership events that position sport as a core HR and wellbeing strategy
- Community Building: Opportunities to strengthen bonds across ranks, forces, and services

Partnership Opportunities: Why Companies Support Team Police

Our 2026 calendar offers exceptional opportunities for corporate partners to align with a cause that delivers measurable social impact while engaging with senior policing leadership across the UK.

The Team Police Value Proposition

Unparalleled Access to Decision-Makers

Our events bring together Chief Constables, senior officers, and command teams from all 43 police forces. For partners, this means direct engagement with the leaders who make procurement and strategic decisions across UK policing - a community of over 300,000 potential customers and advocates.

Authentic Corporate Social Responsibility

Supporting Team Police demonstrates genuine commitment to public service wellbeing. Your partnership directly funds sporting opportunities that improve the physical, psychological, and social health of officers who serve our communities daily. This is not abstract CSR - it is tangible impact with compelling storytelling potential.

Brand Visibility Across Multiple Touchpoints

From premium black-tie dinners attended by hundreds to national sporting finals with widespread participation, our events offer diverse platforms for brand exposure. Whether you are targeting senior leadership at intimate receptions or engaging with frontline officers at competitive fixtures, Team Police delivers the right audience in the right context.

Sector-Leading Partnerships

Join established partners like Salesforce and Sopra Steria who recognize that supporting Team Police positions their brand alongside innovation, community service, and employee wellbeing—values that resonate with modern consumers and talent markets.

Flexible Engagement Options

Whether you are interested in headline event sponsorship, supporting specific sporting sections, or engaging through our signature golf day format, we offer partnership packages that align with your business objectives and budget. Every partnership tier provides meaningful engagement opportunities with the policing community.

About Team Police

Team Police raises much-needed funds through an innovative commercial sponsorship scheme to help improve the wellbeing of everyone who is serving and has served in our UK Police Forces by enabling increased participation in sport and physical activity. Team Police Ltd is the fundraising body for Police Sport UK (PSUK).

Police Sport UK boasts a membership of over 300,000 serving police officers, police staff, retired officers and staff, plus their immediate families. Representing all police forces in the UK, it plays a major role in providing social and recreational activities for the membership. A comprehensive range of sporting sections provide competition at local, regional, national and international levels.

Mark Your Calendars

2026 promises to be our most ambitious year yet. We look forward to seeing you at events across the country as we continue championing police wellbeing through the power of sport.
